Public Comment

Franklin Recreation will not meet on April 24.

Franklin Recreation will meet with the Selectboard on May 17. The funding approved by the town will be available beginning on July 1.

Kathleen provided information about a Grow it Grant she submitted to install raised gardening beds at the Homestead. She provided information about the Community Pizza Dinner being planned for August, and shared the summer programming flyer for the Haston Library.

Bridget has been working on community calendar and will have it ready for review next week.

Summer Programming

Securing liability insurance to host summer camps has been more difficult than expected. Bridget will continue to look into this concern.

Bridget spoke with M&C Transport about providing transportation for summer events. They provided pricing information and stated that they would donate one trip. Discussion of possible destinations followed.

Sponsorship

Bridget shared the draft of the sponsorship letter. The Board reviewed letter and pricing scheme. The Banners from previous sponsors of Franklin Little League need to be reviewed, then the letter will be sent out.

Bridget motioned to approve the letter and sponsorship levels. Nicole seconded. The the motion passed.

Little League

From Northwest Little League (NWLL), no team shall practice until charter is complete. Bridgette has been in contact with coaches to share this information.

Details about the NWLL pitch/hit/run need to be provided to Franklin Little League participants.

Discussion about the clinic planned for Franklin Minor and Major teams on April 8. Coaches will be asked to work together to plan the clinic. Stations are suggested. Details will be shared with coaches and players this week.

Corey Fregeau provided a player code of conduct. This was reviewed and will be sent to coaches to distribute and review with their players.

Discussion about ordering t-shirts and jerseys and how sponsorship will be divvied up.

Timeline Planning

A list of meeting dates and topics to be discussed at meetings was compiled through the month of June.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:15.
